

EclipseCrossword.com

Across

---

4. COJ.net is the official website for what city?
7. This Google mathematical formula gives a numerical weight to each set of documents that measures how important it is within the set.
8. These sources are the law, such as statutes, codes and ordinances.
11. This search engine searches several individual search engines simultaneously.
12. This company owns the search engine Bing.
13. These are issued by agencies and provide for specific goals within agency powers.
15. You look here to find any Federal Register notices indicating the regulation has been affected by any agency action.
16. This connector will exclude specific terms.
17. MyFlorida.com is the official portal for this state.

18. This connector will get you both search terms.
19. Shepardize and KeyCite are examples of this.
22. This type of logic searching was named after George Boole.
24. These sources explain the law, but are not the law.
25. The United States Codes published by West and LexisNexis are considered to be this.
26. This is an important feature of any website.
27. FDSys.gov is published by this United States entity.
28. We saw how this popular website can be hacked and changed.
32. Lawyers and law students use this to create correct citation.
34. Name the version of the United States statutes published by West.
35. Name of the official version of the United States statutes.

Down

---

1. This is what RSS stands for.
2. This is the definition according to Merriam Webster, "computer software used to search data as text or a database for specified information, also a site on the World Wide Web that uses such software to locate key words on other sites."
3. This identifies where the web site originates from.
5. These "crawl" the World Wide Web looking for web pages to add to the database.
6. Name the version of the United States statutes published by LexisNexis.
9. This cites to primary and secondary authority and is not found in the United States Code.
10. What is the official daily publication for rules, proposed rules and notices of the federal agencies?
14. You can find these kind of statutes free online at FDSys.gov.
17. This electronic research database is a Florida Bar benefit.
20. The United States Code is considered to be this version.
21. What does WWW stand for?
23. This popular search engine has a fun graphic logo.
29. The connectors "AND" "NOT" will do what to a search?
30. The connector "OR" will do this to a search query.
31. This usually refers to law reviews and law journals.
33. This will give an exact phrase.